Subject: New Office of Research Advancement location and facilities

Colleagues,

On July 31, 2007, the Office of Research Advancement, along with the Office for the Protection of Research Subjects, is moving to the newly built Credit Union Building. Our mailing address will be:

Office of Research Advancement
3270 S. Flower Street
Third Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90089-0706

Our new office will include an AV-equipped conference room with seating capacity of 30, and will be available for meetings related to selected collaborative research projects. The room is available by reservation through Dale Odano (odano@usc.edu).

Our USC Mail Code is 0706.

The office can be reached by foot from the University Park Campus, and is located at the intersection of Flower St. and Exposition Blvd., one block east of Figueroa and adjacent to the 110 Freeway. Driving directions are below.

Free validated parking is available in a surface parking lot that is part of the Credit Union building. The entrance to the lot is on Flower, just south of Exposition.

Randy Hall
Vice Provost for Research Advancement
