

Inviting Nominations for the 2010 J. Tillman Hall Staff Award for Service to USC

The J. Tillman Hall Staff Award for Service to USC acknowledges post-retirement service by a USC staff member. Nominees will be honored for outstanding voluntary contributions toward enhancing the quality of university life for USC students, active faculty and staff, retirees, alumni, or other members of the USC community, and have contributed to the positive collegial spirit of the Trojan Family.

Nominations can be made by anyone in the USC community. The award will be presented at the 25th Annual Staff Retirement Recognition Luncheon on March 18. This luncheon is sponsored by Todd Dickey, Senior Vice President, Administration and hosted by the Staff Retirement Association.

The deadline to submit nominations for the USC Emeriti Center's second annual J. Tillman Hall Staff Award for Service to USC has been extended to Thursday, February 25, 2010. For nomination forms go to www.usc.edu/emericenter and click on "Awards."
