Subject: Open Forums for Strategic Plan

To USC faculty and staff:

As part of the Strategic Planning (SP) process, the Office of the Provost will host several Open Forums for faculty, staff, students, and alumni. Along with an interactive website (<http://strategic.usc.edu/>) and six SP Subcommittees consisting of over 120 faculty, staff, and students, Open Forums are a principle means by which participation in the SP process has been significantly expanded. I encourage you to attend an Open Forum and express your ideas. In addition to those forums listed below, others have been scheduled for undergraduate and graduate students and alumni.

- Tuesday, April 19 – 4:00-5:30pm (UPC). Taper Hall of Humanities (THH) 201 for faculty.
- Monday, April 25 – 4:00-5:30pm (UPC). Taper Hall of Humanities (THH) 201 for staff.
- Thursday, April 28 – 4:00-5:30pm (HSC). McKibben Annex Auditorium (MCA 249) for faculty and staff.

Background on strategic planning at USC, including past plans, is available on the SP website, <http://strategic.usc.edu>. Should you have any questions, feel free to contact Associate Provost Robin Romans directly at rromans@usc.edu.

Sincerely,
Michael
