Subject: A Letter to the USC Community/Correct Version

Dear Members of the USC Community/Corrected Version:

One of this university's hallmarks is our sense of family, and our deep and real bonds of caring. Because of these special connections, it is often the case that when one member of our community falters or suffers, others share the burden and the concern, and in compassion we want to reach out and help.

I would like to remind all of our students, staff, and faculty that USC offers a multitude of resources for you if you see a student who may need help. Here is a list of contacts.

Sincerely,

Michael L. Jackson
