DIVISION OF HEALTH PROMOTION, DISEASE PREVENTION AND EPIDEMIOLOGY

The Division of Health Promotion, Disease Prevention, and Epidemiology invites applications for a tenured ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR or tenure-track ASSISTANT PROFESSOR faculty position from individuals with expertise in public health (epidemiology, social demography, health literacy and/or health promotion), oral cancer and other craniofacial oral dental diseases and disorders. Qualified candidates will have a DDS/DMD and PhD, or PhD in a related area of research. Strength in the research of cancer, particularly oral cancer is required. Experience in the field of demography and working with databases is also required. The successful candidate is expected to have or develop active extramurally funded research programs.

Applicants should send a cover letter, complete curriculum vitae, a brief description of research accomplishments, statement of current and future research plans (maximum two pages), and at least three letters of recommendation to: Dean Harold Slavkin, USC School of Dentistry, 925 West 34th Street, DEN 203, Los Angeles, CA 90089-0641.

Consideration of applicants will begin in February 2005 and will continue until the position is filled.

*USC is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer.
Minority and female applicants are encouraged to apply.*
