

FORUM ON GLOBAL CHANGE

Across the Generations

Join us for complementary dessert, coffee and great conversation about pressing contemporary issues.

Actively Seeking

Undergraduates and graduate students from ANY discipline, current faculty, and retired faculty and retired staff are encouraged to participate.

A forum will be held once a month on USC's University Park Campus.

- The Economist (on-line) is encouraged as a common source of topics and information.
- Participants welcome to add information from other sources.
- The conclusion of each Forum will focus on how a person or a group can act on that issue.

Hosted by

Jack Wills, Professor Emeritus of History and the forum's creator.
