

New Pope, New Century:

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 2005

4:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

University of Southern California
Doheny Library Room 240

Admission is free
RSVP to crcc@usc.edu

DURING the nearly three decades of his papacy, John Paul II's efforts at public diplomacy transformed the Roman Catholic Church's role in the international arena. How will the recent election of Pope Benedict XVI affect the Vatican's global relations in the coming years?

"New Pope, New Century: The Vatican in the International Arena" will examine the legacy of Pope John Paul II and the current challenges and opportunities confronting Pope Benedict XVI and the Church.

SPONSORED BY:

Knight Chair in Media and Religion,
USC Annenberg School for Communication
Center for Religion and Civic Culture,
USC College of Letters, Arts & Sciences
Loyola Marymount Dept. of Theological Studies
Institute for Advanced Catholic Studies

Visit www.usc.edu/crcc for more information
RSVP to crcc@usc.edu or call 213.740.8562

Century:

The Vatican in the International Arena

Speakers will include:

R. SCOTT APPLEBY

Joan B. Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies, University of Notre Dame

LISA BITEL

University of Southern California

LAURIE BRAND

University of Southern California

EYTAN GILBOA

Bar Ilan University and USC Center on Public Diplomacy

ERIC HANSON

Santa Clara University

JAMES HEFT, S.M.

Institute for Advanced Catholic Studies and University of Dayton

STEVEN LAMY

University of Southern California

JACK MILES

Author of God: A Biography and Christ: A Crisis in the Life of God

THOMAS RAUSCH, S.J.

Loyola Marymount University

LARRY STAMMER

Los Angeles Times

DIANE WINSTON

University of Southern California