

Preliminary Announcement
USC's 46th Annual
Weil Symposium on Critical Care Medicine

Sunday, March 16 through Thursday, March 20, 2008
Caesars Palace Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada

Presented by
Office of Continuing Medical Education
Keck School of Medicine of the University of Southern California and
The Weil Institute of Critical Care Medicine® in affiliation with the Institute of Continuing Education for Nurses
Los Angeles County+USC Medical Center

Directed by
Max Harry Weil, M.D., Ph.D.

Pre-Course - SUNDAY, MARCH 16, 2008

½ day workshops on Practical Methods and Techniques. Registrants may attend two:

- 1. Essential Techniques and Procedures for the Modern Intensivist:
Thoracostomy Drain insertion, Percutaneous Tracheostomy, Percutaneous Gastrostomy
Demetrios Demetriades, MD, Donald J. Green, MD, Howard Belzberg, MD, Kenji Inaba, MD, and Joseph DuBose, MD
- 2. Crisis Airway Management for Emergency and Critical Care Physicians with Focus on the Laryngeal Mask Airway
Jay L. Falk, MD
- 3. Transthoracic Echocardiography: Application to Critically Ill Patients
Steven Leech, MD
- 4. Techniques of Ultrasound Guided Central Venous and Arterial Catheterization
Philip Lumb, MB

Symposium - MONDAY THROUGH THURSDAY, MARCH 17-20, 2008

Didactic lectures in Plenary and Breakout sessions

Tuition:

4-Day Program + two half-day workshops: MD, DO, Pharmacist -$1,020 RN, Allied Health - $790

4-Day Program (no pre-course workshops): MD, DO, Pharmacist -$ 745 RN, Allied Health - $515

For further information please call 1-323-442-2555 or 1-800-872-1119

CME Credit - up to 35 Category 1 credits anticipated for 5 day program.

Hotel:

Caesars Palace Room Rate: Run of house $189 single or double, plus room tax, currently 9%.
Palace Tower rooms are higher; contact hotel for rate.
1-800-634-666 or 1-702-731-7110